Norman G. Wilson served the Rosebud Sioux Tribe and its members as the Tribal President, serving 2 terms (1979-81, 1997-99) and as the Vice President, serving 3 terms (1991-95, 2003-05). Norman had the pulse of the people in his heart, never shirked a task when asked by the people, and always put others first before himself. His compassion and steadfast commitment to serve the people helped shape the many decisions he made while in office, and continued to do so while he wasn't an elected official. As one tribal elder, James Black Bull, Sr. had stated, "We have a good leader now in Norman Wilson. He is a Lakota speaker and displays Christianity and spirituality together."

November 27, 1931 ~ February 11, 2017

Take my children by the hand,
And tell them I have tried.
Ask them not to weep for me—
When I cross the great divide.

All the love that my heart can hold—
I have willed to each and all....
Though my tongue will be mute—
I will hear them when they call.

Let them know my love was great
And the words I longed to speak
Hung like dust upon my lips....
And spilled dry tears down my cheek.

Tell them I shall be near by
If sorrow ever pays a call;
To lead them gently on their way
Where peace, joy and solace fall.

And though they cannot hear me,
For each, I will say a prayer.
Tell them to remember, please
I leave them all, in God's care.
