Lashaunda O. Bordeaux

Don't think of them as gone away—

Their journey's just begun,

Life holds so many facets—

This earth is only one...

Just think of them as resting

From the sorrows and the tears

A place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how they must be wishing

That we could know today

How nothing but our sadness

Can really pass away.

And think of them as living

In the hearts of those we touched...

For nothing loved is ever lost—

And they were loved so much.
