In Celebration Of Life
Rebecca Mae Chasing Horse
A Mother, a Sister, an Aunt...

We have all been thru it lived and learned
But it never gets better there's no turning back But for the past we yearn
I know when you look out it all seems so dark
The sky opened up and now you're a missing part Taken away so soon leaving behind tears and broken hearts Bringing together wide and far Reminiscing about all the good times wild rides and scars
All the get-togethers or those times at the bar or how you helped each other Thru the struggles when times got hard
It may seem like its the end but its just the start Just remember you're never alone She's now watching over you in a better place a brightly shining star no more suffering no more pain
No amount of tears will damper her greatly burning flame Remember a happy time even when it seems like the hurt will never tame
We all have a time to go it's inevitable no one to blame Always remember who she was carry on her name
 It ain't easy just have a little faith
You will be together again you just have to wait
She will be there waiting smiling standing at the gate Nothing's ever certain but that is cause everyday we tempting fate
We gotta slow down and appreciate the little things in life but instead we increase the pace Should always be prepared and be ready to brace It's a one way lane we know not what we face
 We working against a common enemy
The devil waiting for us to land on his plate
 But there's always two sides to a story and a beginning an the end
This is in memorium of a great partner loving mother and a caring friend
