

Justin

of Loving Memory

Justin John Albert, 39 of Cody, passed away April 12, 2022 in Valentine, NE. He was born on September 5, 1982 to the late Mike Albert and Terri Johnston (Duba/Albert).

Growing up, Justin enjoyed hunting, showing cattle, fishing and spending time with his dad and uncle. He graduated with the class of 2000 from Cody-Kilgore, where he was active in FFA and trapshooting. He went on to CSU in Fort Collins, CO, graduating in 2005. There he participated in both trap and skeet shooting, qualifying for Nationals in both. While at CSU, he met lots of new people and enjoyed their company for years to come.

Justin enjoyed the ranch life of cattle, haying and the wide open country. He worked for Bob Simmons doing daywork and Jim Farley driving a silage truck for several years. He enjoyed his family and watching his nephews in their endeavors. He coached Matthew in trapshooting, handing down the tradition. Justin loved his dogs, Macy and then his beloved Paisley.

He traveled to Africa in 2013 and then New Zealand in 2020, with his best friend Kelen Lovett. Albert loved being with his friends and making memories. Johnny Double Clutch...

A Rancher's Reward

“Since God is the Great Creator
Of all the beauties I’ve seen and heard
When He promises that eternity waits for me
Well...I’ll take Him at His word
I don’t need to live in a mansion
Where the streets are lined with gold
Just a dusty old trail within heaven
A peaceful valley for my abode
God can give me this quiet corner
With plenty of work still to do
Calves to care for and pastures to tend
As my spirit, His strength renews
I’m made for hard work, it’s just who I am
And in eternity, I’ll choose it all again
God can give me some land of my own
And I’ll ranch that range for Him
I’ve no need for the wings of angels
My horse and pickup will do just fine

My dogs who’ve passed running beside me
The things God counted; that He reserved as mine
And I’ll build a beautiful homestead
Quite like the one I had to leave here
It will remind me of you and of this land I love
The things I’ve held most treasured and dear
And my joy will be full amidst this beauty
Among the gentle creatures He’s made, Yet my joy will overflow when you’re with me again
We’ll share eternity beyond the grave
So when you arrive in heaven
Don’t look for me where angels fly
I won’t be in those pearly clouds
Or touching the azure sky
Look for me in emerald pastures
Among the creatures I’ve always known
For a rancher’s reward is my destiny
A heavenly range that God has called my own”
