Take my children by the hand,
And tell them I have tried.
Ask them not to weep for me—
When I cross the great divide.

All the love that my heart can hold—
I have willed to each and all...
Though my tongue will be mute—
I will hear them when they call.

Let them know my love was great
And the words I longed to speak
Hung like dust upon my lips....
And spilled dry tears down my cheek.

Tell them I shall be near by
If sorrow ever pays a call;
To lead them gently on their way
Where peace, joy and solace fall.

And though they cannot hear me,
For each, I will say a prayer.
Tell them to remember, please
I leave them all, in God's care.

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
You're now at peaceful rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*
