The Garden of Promise

There is a place, I have been told,
    Beyond an open gate
    All have been invited
Where friends and loved ones wait
    It holds eternal promise
    Of everlasting peace
No pain or sorrow ever comes
And teardrops there have ceased.
    Abundant life is evident
    Constant, fresh and new
    A garden of provision
    With Eternity in view
The promise is awaiting
    A place we can abide
Fulfilled for all who answer
    The call to come inside.
