In Loving Memory Of

James

Wicóni Hokšila

'Little Man' ~ 'Pigpen' ~ 'Taco'

Even though a lot of people changed and we are all on different roads now, we crossed paths for a reason and I will always remember all of you for making me the person I am today. Good or bad. One thing I did though, was I enjoyed every single good moment I got, I never wasted the opportunity to enjoy a great moment or make a new fun memory. I also learned the true meaning behind good memories last forever when people change.
