God saw you getting tired

And a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around you

And whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer

And saw you fade away.

Although we loved you dearly,

We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,

You're now at peaceful rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

"Once a Marine, always a Marine."

Long after the uniform has been laid aside, the last order has been given, the final salute returned, the last handshake shared, and the occasional tear brushed away by a determined hand. Long after that, it still runs in your veins. Lives on in your mind. Dominates your will. Long after that, you feel the call. The spirit that can only be shared among brothers.

Among individuals bonded together by the truest of ideals.

"Once a Marine, always a Marine."
